

Confronting Anti-Semitism A Family Awareness Program

For Jewish Middle and High School Students and their Parents

Sunday, January 11th

This important program will take place at two locations in order to make it accessible to as many families as possible.

11 am-1:30 pm

Hevreh of Southern Berkshire
270 State Rd, Great Barrington

OR

4 -6:30 pm

Temple Anshe Amunim
26 Broad St., Pittsfield

This program, presented by a trained ADL facilitator, will provide middle and high school students and their parents with the opportunity to discuss the nature and impact of anti-Semitism among youth and communities, and identify safe and practical response strategies. This workshop will:

- Increase awareness of anti-Semitic stereotypes, myths and manifestations.
- Increase understanding of anti-Semitism among youth and in communities.
- Affirm the value and importance of a positive Jewish identity.
- Provide resources, skills and strategies to help students and parents effectively respond to anti-Semitic incidents.

Babysitting and a light dairy meal will be provided at both sessions.

"It wasn't until I participated in ADL's workshop that I realized my child had encountered anti-Semitism in school. I was surprised to learn that kids were still throwing pennies."

Participating Parent

"We've been doing this workshop for the last six years, and our parents and our students greatly benefit from it. It is an informative, eye-opening, interesting and participatory program that we will certainly continue doing."
